MOVIE DESCRIPTION

A murder in a sleepy town at the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains shocks the community and refuels a longtime feud between two families. It's up to the new sheriff, Justin Wise, to solve the case before the town takes the law into its own hands.

MEET THE CHARACTERS

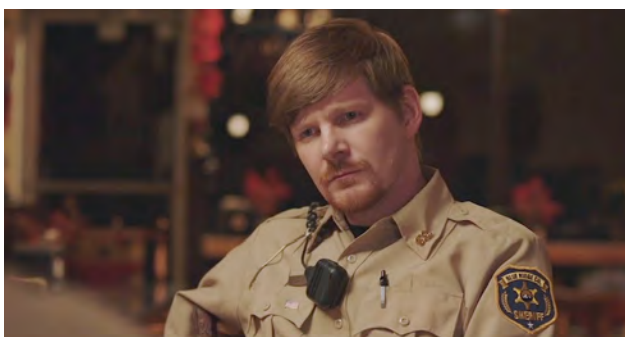

JOHNATHON SCHAECH | SHERIFF JUSTIN WISE

Justin Wise is an ex-Green Beret and the new sheriff of Blue Ridge. He moved to the small mountain town for a fresh start with his ex-wife and daughter. Justin is ready to leave his life of chaos behind and embrace a slower pace. But for Justin, that's easier said than done. His high moral code and obligation to do what is right often puts him in danger, but his quick thinking and impressive combat skills usually get him out of it.

LARA SILVA | DEPUTY BECKY DOBSON

Deputy Becky Dobson grew up in Blue Ridge, and she knows everything about the community and its residents. She is tough, smart, and skilled with a firearm. Becky can handle any situation the job throws at her and isn't afraid to put the townspeople in their place if need be.

BEN ESLER | DEPUTY MCKINLEY THOMPSON

Although Deputy McKinley Thompson is a bit of a jokester, he takes his duty to protect the town very seriously. He is still learning what it takes to be a deputy and looks up to Justin as a mentor.

SARAH LANCASTER | ELLI WISE

After her marriage with Justin Wise ended, Elli Wise moved back to her hometown of Blue Ridge so their daughter, Maddie, could experience the joys of small-town life and grow up somewhere that's safe. Elli now owns the local diner and is a leader in the community. Despite not being together anymore, she remains close with Justin and always looks out for him.
